

Labrusca Lambrusco Rosso DOC

Two different Lambrusco grapes are used to make this gorgeous fresh and fragrant fizzy red. After primary fermentation, the wine goes through a second fermentation in autoclaves that lasts up to three months. Perfumed aromas of dark berries and a well-balanced and structured palate. A food-friendly wine that easily pairs with traditional Italian dishes as well as modern cuisine in all its interpretations.

Wine exported to: Canada

Most recent awards

Grape Varieties:

85% Lambrusco Salamino, 15% Lambrusco Ancellotta

Stainless steel Fermentation container:

3 months Aging before bottling:

Closure: Natural Cork

Tasting Notes and Food Pairings

Intense ruby red color with purple reflections; Tasting notes:

extremely fragrant bouquet, showing lush aromas of red fruit, especially blueberry and raspberry, confirmed on the well balanced, structured palate with distinctive flavor intensity and balance and a slightly ta

All-around food wine, versatile and easily paired Serving temperature:

with both traditional and modern cuisine; excellent with white meat, roasts or Italian-style minestrone.

Alcohol: 11% alc. by vol.

2025 Empson & Co S.p.A. - Copyright © All Rights Reserved.